Nonthampton Co., April 13, 1852.

Messrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last advised to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINOTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled.

ELIZABETH BAGWELL. Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL,

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: Mrs. Elizabeth Bagwell is a lady of the highest respectability, wealthy and influential. The cure in her case speaks volumes in favor of this wonderful Tincture. Several other persons we have heard of have derived great benefit from its use in our county. We are entirely out of the article, and have daily anxious inquiries to know when we will receive another supply. We expect large sales of it from the present demand, and want you to send us a box as soon as possible.

Yours,

TYLER & ADAIR.

Northampton county, April 12, 1852.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES. We have certificates from Captain Canot, brother to the eminent physician to Louis Napoleon, President of the French republic, who was cured of Rheumatism of seven years' standing; one from Rott, Gault, do., of seven years; one from Mr. Oldham, Baltimore Custom-house, of a dreadful case of dyspepsia; one from Jon. Like, of a case of dyspepsia and general debility; and one from J. K. Stapleton, esq., of Baltimore, with hundreds of others.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N. Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dizxiness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours, VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain in the U. S. Navy.

VESTER
IS BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME TS utility is beyond comparison with any other farming implement now in use. It takes the seed from the field I implement now in use. It takes the seed from the field, leaving the straw or grass all standing. It weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to twelve acres per day. The fingers, or teeth, catch all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and throw them back into the box, which will cross a twenty-acre field without emptying. The heads are then loaded into a wagon and taken directly to the mill for cleaning, thus diminishing the labor three-fourths, and saving all the seed. This machine comes so low that every farmer will have it and news the manufacturer 300 per cent.

This is to certify that Mr. G. J. Naylor has gathered clover off of a sixteen-acre field of mine, which has been pastured two months with ten head of cattle, and it produced six bushels and a half and one peck of seed. I gave him two-thirds for gathering and cleaning. I think his machine is first-rate, and answers all the purpose that is intended.

KKAUSEK'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HARVESTER.—
We have conversed with a number of Farmers, and they are of opinion that there are at least 3,000 acres in each township in Camden or Gloucester county, New Jersey. Admirting there are but 1,000, it is said that each acre will yield

Perhaps no invention offers greater inducements for a profitable investment than the Harvester. Editors' Correspondence.

(From our Baltimore Correspondent.)

BALTIMORE, July 6-10 p. m. I have read with very little surprise the card of protest which appeared in the Intelligencer of vesterday.

I remember very well, in 1844, when General Taylor was nominated, that a large number of equally influential Whigs in Maryland made a similar protest against the nominations. They had vanity enough to believe their influence was so great that the fact of their absolving from the party would lose Maryland, as a matter of course. How completely was the imbecility of their power and influence made manifest by the triumphant majority which old Maryland rolled up for the hero of Buena Vista! The truth is, great men are often ignorant of one essential quality of human nature. They deceive themselves by supposing that the great mass of voters are controlled by them. This is an entire mistake. When men come to vote for President, they want no dictation, especially from persons whose very actions prove them not only bad advisers, but doubtful Whigs! I consider no man a Whig, nor will the great majority of voters so consider him. who does not abide the decision of his party, when concentrated in a National Convention.

The Whigs of Georgia, of Virginia, of Mississippi, of Tennessee, and of Alabama, will pay much less respect to the pronunciamento alluded to than the gentlemen who made it are disposed to imagine. I will wager a rusty copper against the stability of these gentlemen's politics, that I can go into their own districts and find Democrats enough to vote for Scott and Graham to neutralize and overbalance all the influence of their card in opposition to the nominees. Indeed, I would not ask a better indication of the success of the Whig ticket than to find such opposition. General Scott's fame and known character with the people who vote on the day of election-men whom these politicians seldom see or think ofstand so high, and are so deeply impressed, that their assaults and efforts dwindle into nothing. This is the language of experience. The hero of an hundred battles can be elevated to the Presidential chair without the aid of equivocal politicians or friends. For one such Whig that deserts him, I'll pledge myself to find ten Democrats who will lend him their aid. Such are the convictions of your correspondent, based upon unequivocal facts.

The Day Case.

At 2 o'clock to-day eleven jurors had been worn in this case

RESPECTFULLY DECLINED .- The London Times ncludes an article on the trouble between Gov. Bigler and the Chinese in California with the fol-owing suggestions: "If the governor and legislature of California will look beyond the present hour and the tem-porary convenience of the treasury, they may recognise a great purpose in the unprecedented fact of a large Chinese immigration. They may welcome the thought of Chinese fellow-citizens learning their customs, their laws, and their religion. Their patriotism or their ambition may suggest to them that such a race, Chinese in origin, but American by education, may form a convenient link between the States and China itself; and that, aided by it and their geographical circumstances, the Americans may one day acquire in China and the Asiatic archipelago the position now occupied by ourselves in Hindos-

We respectfully beg leave to decline the compliment above tendered. It might, perhaps, suit John Bull and his leading organ to see the Americans repeating in China the calamitous and crime-stained course which England has pursued in India, but we earnestly hope that our country may never be so fearfully misled. Far from America be the guilty ambition of thriving by the despoiling and decay of subject states. Far from her be the idea of power gained by overrunning distant and weaker nations, by destroying their industry, jeoparding their means of living, plunging them deeper and deeper in the abyss of dependence and weakness. For such has been the career of England in India, and now, after three-quarters of a century of Christian occupation, the people of that unhappy country are in a much worse and feebler con while yet under their heathen or Mohammedan tyrants and oppressors. - New York Tribune. SCOTT'S TRIAL BY THE PROPLE .- The eloquent Ogden Hoffman, in a speech to the "acres of Whigs" who assembled in the city of New York to ratify the nomination of Scott and Graham, thus alluded to the arrest of Gen. Scott in Mexico, by order of an administration that shrunk from the task of afterwards trying him. The issue is now made up, and the scar-covered de-fendant "puts himself upon the country."

" Many a time I thought that justice would be done to the venerable soldier, and, notwithstanding my weariness, I would speak for hours upon a subject so pleasing to my feelings. I remem ber, when I was a member of Congress, when he was about to leave his family for an inhospitable climate, it was there I first knew Winfield Scott, He was Whig all over, and his companions were Clay and Crittenden and other true Whigs. [Loud applause.] He then went to the war; and let American history blush for the fact! Rome gave a triumph to the victorious citizen-England, for less than half the duty Scott performe has made a Duke. Scott was recalled by the administration. He bowed to the edict, returned home with but one faithful servant, (and he was an Irishman, and the first place he entered was the little village church, where, forgetting all his victories, he fervently returned thanks to the Divine Creator for his bounties. I say, Scott has been most unjustly treated; he was arrested, but he never was tried. We will try him in next November."

Everybody hereabouts knows George Witherell, who for years has been a working man in the Democratic ranks, and who has done that party good service. On Monday George met a Demo-cratic friend who had just returned from the West, and whose first inquiry was, "Well, George, George answered, "I'm afraid we'll have to part this time, for I go for Winfield Scott!"
"Do you" shouted his friend, "give us your hand on that, old fellow: so do I."—Cleveland
